

Course - History of Art Learning to Look and See

The ability to be able to analyse art is so fulfilling. Seeing gives art both its intrinsic benefit and its power to make a positive impact on people's wellbeing. This course teaches what to look for and the properties of different styles and their effects.

1. Painting- an introduction to visual analysis. Here we focus on works from the History of Art from Medieval times to the Renaissance.
2. Painting- Analysis from the Renaissance to contemporary art.
3. Sculpture- Early Greek to Renaissance.
4. Sculpture- Renaissance to Contemporary.
5. Architecture- Egyptian to Medieval
6. Architecture- Renaissance to Contemporary

This is a six week course run on a Saturday morning and Thursday evening. Course starts from 9th September.

Time           Thursdays 6pm - 8.30pm, including a break for a glass of wine or soft drink.
                    Saturdays 10am - 12.30pm

Cost £150 per person. Numbers are restricted to 6 people only.